Ontario Planning Commission Turns Down Petition in Hearing

APPEALS ARE FUTILE

Objectors Seek to Bar All Business From Euclid in Residential Area

Ontario, Aug. 12—William Atchley will not be permitted to construct a miniature golf course on his property at Fourth street and Euclid avenue due to the action taken here last night by the city planning commission.

Featured by bits of oratory, and many expressions a public hearing was held to decide whether or not Mr. Atchley's petition should be granted. Edward E. Gray, Upland city attorney and attorney for Mr. Atchley, delivered an appeal that for a time appeared to have won the decision. So strong was the protest, however, that a unanimous vote by the commission recommended that "no miniature golf course be permitted on Euclid avenue outside the business district."

Mr. Atchley's petition, signed by many Euclid avenue property owners and owners of adjacent property, was placed in the consideration against A. R. Gemmel's petition from the protesting property owners. Mr. Gray quoted Dr. Merton E. Hill, Chaffey principal, as declaring himself in favor of the golf course. Mr. Gemmel read a letter from S. Earle Blakeslee, music director, in which he protested the course.

Thomas R. Cummings declared himself against allowing any business on Euclid. Sanford Ballou was asked by Mr. Gemmel to speak.

Mr. Atchley was the first to take the floor when the hearing opened under the chairmanship of Willard D. Ball. He assured the officials that the course would be a very beautiful addition to the avenue, that it would be operated in a manner that would not be oojectionable and he added, "if there is one well founded objection, I will take out the course."

Mr. Gray then followed in a stirring appeal and he contended that as the avenue is a main line artery, it will depreciate as a residential street, "that the trucks and traffic will keep more people awake than a dozen peewee golf courses."

Objectors to the plan looked upon the proposed course as a strictly business venture and plead with the officials to prohibit any business from the avenue in the residential area.

Ontario Tax Rate Set at $1.83

ONTARIO, Aug.12—No change will be made in the tax rate of this city for next year last year, the figure being $1.83, it was decided at an adjourned meeting of the city council tonight. The total amount to be raised for municipal expenditure is $119,812.50

The $1.83 rate will be divided as follows: $1 for the general fund; 15 cents for music and advertising; 27 cents for parks; 22 cents for the library; 1 cent for the city planning commission, and 18 cents to meet interest and principal payments.

A reduction of 4 cents was made in the rate to meet interest and principal, but the library and park rates were each boosted 2 cents. With the additional library rate, a fund will be created for the construction of an addition to the building.

Of the $119,812.50, $65,372.50 will go to the general fund, and the amounts for the other funds follow: music and advertising, $9,805; parks $17,650; library $14,381; planning commission, $654 and bonded indebtedness $11,950.

VILLAGE GOSSIP
By the Mayor

Publicity—perhaps even more than Charity—begins at home.

Shout to the bewildered world what a wonderful people we are; crow about the hospitality of our homes, bore people to somnolent ennui with statistics of wealth and production, but the way to convince them that the latch string is out is to let them pull it.

To a guest and potential customer from an old home state, a California orange picked from one of our trees is a treasure. Add to that a little kindly time and attention and salt the visit with some interesting first-hand information about our citrus industry and you have not only delighted the visitor, but furnished him with enough publicity material to saturate his neighborhood with the flavor of our choice fruit.

Folks, that's advertising you just can't buy.

Along these lines we sincerely commend the timely thoughtfulness of our friend and neighbor, Joe Leaman. He anticipated the visit of a group of 47 good people from his old home county in Pennsylvania.

To these friends, and friends of friends, the hospitality of California and this friendly community was heartily extended.

Through's Joe's yen for organization—transportation, entertainment and refreshment were tendered to an enthusiastic party of very fine people, who will go back home with a kindly feeling toward us. That's worth while. Three cheers for Joe.

Cheerfully yours,
—HIZ-WHISKERS.

UPLAND FANCIERS AT POULTRY SHOW

Poultry Breeders Gather at Gardena For Picnic and Exhibit

Poultry fanciers from all over Southern California gathered at Gardena Sunday for the annual young stock show and picnic, the events drawing a crowd of about 200 fanciers and members of their families.

The coops held 175 chickens of popular and rare breeds and competition for awards was keen, the Upland entries making an excellent showing by winning many first places.

Those attending the show from Upland were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gage, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Kirk, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Nation and George Tyler. Although he did not attend the show, R. N.Franklin made several entries.

Prizez were won by the Upland men as follows:

George Tyler—Buff Minorcas. First cockerel first pullet. Partridge Plymoths: First pullet. Silver Spangled Hamburgs: First cockerel, first pullet. Black Cochin Bantams. First cockerel, second pullet.

Mr. Tyler, while one of the younger poultry fanciers, is enthusiastic about his chickens and is having splendid success with his several breeds. He recently has shipped two orders of Buff Minorca eggs to customers in Honolulu.

CAMPAIGNS NEAR END AS 24 SEEK 14 COUNTY POSTS

Primary Election Two Weeks Off and Contests Are Getting Warm

VOTE OFFICIALS NAMED

Local Race For Township Posts Between Two Veterans and Two Others

Two weeks off, the county primary election will bring to a climax the campaigns in this district of 24 candidates for the 14 positions, while in Alta Loma, Cucamonga and Etiwanda, the situation will be slightly different, as regards the justiceship positions.

Of outstanding interest throughout the second supervisorial district is the contest being made by C. E. Grier, chairman of the board of supervisors, and Frank C. Buffington, Upland citrus grower and city councilman, and backed by the County Law Observance League.

Grier Club Here

Both candidates are backed by political organizations, with Mr. Grier's friends organized into Grier - For - Supervisor clubs throughout the district while Mr. Buffington's apparent support is in the so-called law observance league, strength of which is doubtful.

Among the league's other candidates is Ralph Guy, opposing W. A. Shay for sheriff and recent developments in this campaign are focusing attention on the details of a raid made on a still in Reche canyon.

Locally the campaign for township positions, constable and justice of the peace are the object of four men, two of whom are incumbents, J. F. Sawyer, chief of police and constable, is opposed by S. H. Jacobs in the run for the constable job. Judge George R. Crane, who is police judge, and W. H. Parks, will be on the ballots for the place of justice of the peace.

PLAN CREATED TO PROTECT PEOPLE

Chamber Asks Cooperation in Keeping Unworthy Causes From Getting Funds

As a means of protecting the residents and merchants against frauduelent advertising schemes and solicitations, a better business bureau of the chamber of commerce has been created. When local people are asked to contribute to "this or that," or when merchants are approached with some advertising proposition, they are to ask the salesman for his letter of recommendation from the chamber of commerce.

When any proposition is presented to the chamber, it will be investigated by the bureau, a special committee, and if the matter is deemed worthy or advisable, the agent will be given a letter of recommendation. Such a letter will be a guarantee to the local people that the cause is a worthy one.

In no way can the matter be controlled legaly, but if all persons, who receive agents will ask for the letter of recommendation, a step will be taken to prohibit unworthy projects of getting local money. It is pointed out that persons can act according to their own convictions regardless of whether the agent has the letter. Those who will refuse to grant the agent an interview unless he has the letter, will make the protection plan effective, Clair E. Kirk, chamber secretary, said. Such a refusal would tend to discourage visits by the agents would in some cases bringq

"When an agent makes a call without the letter, local people are asked to notify Mr. Kirk at the chamber office. He will seek to contact the man and get his case before the business bureau.

J. W. Mehl presented the matter at the meeting of the chamber directors in the Davis cafe yesterday noon and the secret committee to form the better business bureau will be named immediately.

Pageant To Be Given Here Will Depict Epochs In State's History

Developments in the progress of California from the time the Indians roamed freely to the modern day will be enacted in a pageant of history planned as the outstanding feature of the Pioneer Pilgrimage here September 9.

Gene Nisbet, chairman of the pageant committee, has created a story that dips into the past, gives a touch of the pioneer hardships, pictures eight epochs of the state development and ends in a climax that brings all the highlights in the history into an impressive, inspiring and colorful picture.

When it is enacted by several hundred persons, fittingly costumed, the pageant story will be more than that which can be said about it from hearing of the plans.

Indians will feature in the first of the epochs and as California was developed, so will the various themes in the pageant be enacted.

Since Mr. Nisbet first presented the summary of the pageant to the general celebration committee, additional possibilities have been suggested and when it is given here it will be something that has never before been created in honor of the pioneers.

What he has planned is called a pageant, but in reality it will be given in parade form, with the line of march up Euclid avenue to the Madonna of the Trail monument. Each epoch will depict a story in California history. As the principals in each division reach the Madonna of the Trail monument, they will leave the line of march and go to a designated place on a platform to be built in front and around the Madonna monument.

As the pageant ends, the assembled representatives of each epoch will unite in paying honor to the "pioneer mother of covered wagon days," depicted by the monument.

The final program at the conclusion of the pageant will include a short patriotic oration by a southland notable, not yet selected. Then a band will strike the air of a California song and all will join in an impressive closing.

A public address system, erected by J. M. Ross of the Ross Auto Electric shop, will carry every detail of the program for several blocks from the monument.

Many details as to handling the throng expected, definite route of the pageant, the pioneer picnic and the afternoon's program are still to be completed.

SPECIALIST ENDS PHONE RATE STUDY

G. R. Kenny, Los Angeles, To Tell Officials of Cost Survey

Analysis of the reports submitted by the Ontario-Upland Telephone company to the state railroad commission has been completed by G. R. Kenny, Los Angeles accountant, and a copy forwarded to R. G. Manley, city service manager, it was announced today.

Confidential figures are contained in the accountant's statement, which will be studied by Mr. Manley and Edward E. Gray, city attorney, and Ontario officials in preparing the case for the commission's second hearing next month.

Statements to the effect that the proposed rate by the company is in excess of what is actually needed to place the system on a paying basis, were contained in the accountant's report, it was indicated.

Mr. Kenny was engaged by Upland and Ontario to study the company's figures and with the receipt of his report, the city officials will begin a definite program in preparing the case.

Grier Back With Bright Hopes in State Tax Plan

Southern California's headquarters for the campaign in the interests of Amendment No.21, which will appear on the ballots at the November election, will be located in San Bernardino—and other details in the proposed campaign program sought by C. E. Grier were realized.

Mr. Grier returned Sunday from San Francisco where he went to attend a meeting of the leaders in the movement. Mr. Grier is one of the heads in the state seeking to bring about a change in the tax system. The present system, created by Amendment No. 1 takes away from this and other counties the taxes of public utility operating corporations, giving the money to the state.

Another trip to San Francisco will probably be necessary before the campaign is actually launched September 1, he said today.

Annual Meeting and Picnic For W.C.T.U.

Two events important in W. C. T. U. circles will take place Friday, August 15, the annual meeting and election of officers and a picnic.

Meeting at 2:15 p. m. at the home of Miss Flora Morley, 321 First avenue, the annual business session will be held and officers elected for the coming year.

Later the members and their families will go the Chaffey campus where at 6 o'clock a big picnic wil be held. Each member is expected to bring a well-filled family picnic basket, including table service.

EARLY HISTORY OF UPLAND REVEALED

"Life of George Chaffey" at Library Contains Much Interesting Reading

Just at this time while everybody is getting ready for the Pioneer Pilgrimage and are interested in historical things, it might be interesting to the citizens of Upland and vicinity to know that the library has purchased copies of "George Chaffey's Life."

Extracts from the book show that "George Chaffey was one of the master irrigation engineers of Western America—founder of Etiwanda and Ontario colonies in California. He built the canal from the Colorado river to the desert, in the face of superhuman difficulties, and irrigated Imperial Valley, which he named. In later years, as president of the Whittier Water company, he brought water to the La Habra valley, which now contains some of the highest priced horticultural land in the world. In the early eighties he organized the Los Angeles Electric Light company, making that city the first in America, if not in the world, to be lighted exclusively by electricity. He was the first man in Western America to file on mountain streams for hydro-electric power.

"Mr. Chaffey was also the founder of scientific irrigation in Australia, and the colonies of Mildura and Renmarck are still used as object lessons for Australian irrigation systems.

"This work gives the human-interest side of the romance of irrigation in California and Australia."

There are pictures of Chaffey college and Chaffey Union high school, one of the famous gravity tram (Ontario and San Antonio Heights R. R. Co.) with the mules riding, an early view of Euclid avenue before Upland was, the old Garcia ranch house, and others of interest to old-timers.

Two other books of note that might be mentioned at this time are "Los Angeles in the Sunny Seventies," and "Rubidoux's Ranch." In Los Angeles in the Seventies "hunting around Los Angeles is excellent," quoting from the book. "The San Fernando, San Gabriel, San Jose and Cucamonga valleys are particularly famous for their hunting." In 1844 Bandini sold that part of California now known as Rubidoux ranch for about 25c an acre. This book also tells how Mrs. Eliza Tibbetts kept the first orange trees ever grown in California alive by putting her dish-water on them, rather than throw it away while water was so scarce.

Miss Humphries, a returned missionary from China, is spending some time here with members of the C. T. LeTourneau family. Miss Sarah Le Tourneau and Miss Marie Le Tourneau, now Mrs. Thomas Olson, both of Upland, spent five years in the mission fields in China and it was there they met Miss Humphries, who is planning to return to China in the near future.

ATWOODS DEFEAT VETERANS 4 TO 3 IN GREAT BATTLE

Lemon Growers Vanquished in Ninth Inning as Hit Brings Run

VICTORS IN BIG GAIN

Team, Poorly Rated at Start, Overcomes Nine of Many Seasons

By Paul Weber

Bringing to realization a fete that few even dared to believe possible, the Atwood baseball team sent the Upland Lemon Growers' association team to a 4 to 3 defeat last night. Eight weeks ago the Atwood team was rated with the poorest in the Upland night baseball league and last night's stellar victory places the nine managed by Glenn M. Atwood in the race for the championship.

Going into the last of the ninth with the score tied 3 to 3, Meek walked Miller to put a man on first base with no one out. Myers came through with a two-base hit into right center field, sending Miller to third base. McBurney struck out but E. Wright singled between first and second base for his third hit of the game to send Miller across the plate with the winning run.

Atwoods were the first to score, H. Wright crossing the plate in the third inning. The Lemon Growers put across one run in the fourth to tie the score. Atwoods took the lead again in the fifth when Myers scored. After he had walked and E. Wright hit, Dean and Ingram collided in the outfield trying to catch Joins' high fly, to let the runner across the plate. The Lemon Growers came back in their half of the sixth and put across two tallies to take a slight lead over the Atwood boys. Miller saved the day for the winners in the seventh when he again tied the count by scoring on a long triple into right field and an error by Ingram on the hit.

Tedder held the Lemon Growers without letting in a run in the last two innings and Atwoods put on their rally in the ninth to win the

NEWCOMERS GET GLIMPSE OF CITY

Pennsylvanians on Tour of West End See Many Sights

Upland today has prospects of getting several Pennsylvania families as newcomers, following the excursion trip made through the local citrus territory Saturday by about 75 members of the Ridgeway tours, made up of Pennsylvania residents.

J. B. Leaman knew many in the group personally and he is a personal friend of O. H. Shenk, director of the tour.

It was the opinion of those in charge of the visitors that many would return to California to live and that Upland had a good chance of getting them as residents.

Arriving on the Union Pacific Saturday, the group was given a glimpse of the local orange and lemon groves, the grape district and the Pomona section, with the tour ending in Hotel Ontario, where a banquet was served.

L. R. Bradley, manager of the Upland Lemon Growers' association, outlined more fully about the citrus situation and Mr. Leaman also spoke about the lemon situation. Others in the group from Upland were P. H. McQuillen, mayor, and Glenn M. Atwood, president of the chamber of commerce.

HOW I EARNED MY FIRST MONEY

"You know, there was a shoe man, who lived upstairs," Bruce Bower, local jeweler, said. "When he got a load of coal, he had me carry it up to his place. I got 50 cents for doing it."

That was in Marion, Kansas, but Mr. Bower couldn't remember how long ago.

Hoos Gow Builders Face Complications For Act, Is Report

It was placed at the corner of Ninth street and Second avenue for the purpose of confining within its scanty walls all those gentlemen who have not joined in the local custom of growing whiskers.

Investigation by some interested parties, however, resulted in the announcement that in about four instances, placing of the structure has violated local laws.

The building was erected without a permit from the building department.

It obstructs traffic.

No red light has been placed on it at night to warn the uninformed.

Outcome of this situation is hard to predict, for it is reported that the builders of the Hoos Gow may find themselves inside the city's official jail.

Edward E. Gray, city attorney, was appealed to this morning and it is rumored that legal action may be taken.

UPLAND GIRL WILL TEACH IN HAWAII

Miss Elizabeth Hawkins Is to Take Position With University of Hawaii

A cablegram received Friday by Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hawkins from their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Hawkins, sent upon the eve of her scheduled sailing from Honolulu, brought the unexpected news that Miss Hawkins has accepted a position as teacher and publicity writer for the University of Hawaii and will remain on the islands indefinitely.

Miss Hawkins and her brother, Howard, who graduated this year from Chaffey junior college, have been attending the summer session at the Hawaiian university and Howard is returning home, being scheduled to arrive Saturday. He expects to enter the agricultural school of the University of California at Davis.

Miss Hawkins, of whom her friends say: "No one knows what Elizabeth will do next, not even Elizabeth herself," has shown unusual talent for newspaper work as well as special magazine writing and is well-known in newspaper circles in Southern California.

A graduate of Chaffey high school and junior college, Miss Hawkins spent one year in the journalism department of Columbia University. Returning from New York last summer she entered the University of Southern California and graduated from that institution this spring. During her term in U. S. C. she was made sports editor of the Trojan, the only woman ever to hold that position on the university paper.

Because of her outstanding work during the year Miss Hawkins was offered a position as assistant teacher in the journalism department at U. S. C., setting another precedent, and she had planned to take the position and to do graduate work there.

Miss Hawkins has not yet given details of her new position, the cablegram being sent primarily to let her parents know she was not returning with her brother. A letter with more information is expeced soon.

The poker "table," had that much money in evidence when the pastime was interrupted and the men brought to the Upland jail and later taken before Judge James Sharp yesterday. The games were being held east of the Ontario city limits on Francis street.

Fines totaled $160, this amount being paid by the following: C. K. West, J. S. Gibson, F. R. Taylor Earl Bybee, K. Wolfe, O. N. Trewett and Paul Scott, Ontario, and John Adams, Pomona.

LUCK RULES OVER ACCIDENTS; MAN HIT BY P. E. CAR

NO SERIOUS INJURIES

Motorist Escapes When Auto Drives Into Path of Car at Etiwanda

Luck apparently ruled over accidents occurring in and near Upland over the week-end when one sleepy motorist hit a telephone pole, when another one was struck by a Pacific Electric car and when at least two others narrowly escaped from injuries in accidents that could have been serious.

John Leggett, Los Angeles, was going east on Foothill boulevard at 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning, when he went to sleep and his machine hit a telephone pole at the southwest corner of Central avenue and Foothill boulevard. With a badly wrenched back and other injuries he was taken to his home by Stone's ambulance. L. G. Todd, Foothill and Central, was a witness to the accident. The telephone service was interrupted by the crash.

Apparently failing to see a P. E. car approach, S. R. Corona, Fullerton, drove his machine over the railroad crossing at Etiwanda avenue, Etiwanda, just as the electric car arrived. He received bruises and lacerations and narrowly escaping death.

Going up the Camp Baldy road Saturday night, William Conner, Pomona, failed to keep to the right side of the road and drove headon into a machine driven by W. N. Wallace, Los Angeles, who was coming down the incline. Conner suffered deep cuts and bruises about the face and body.

Charles O. Deverts, 634 First avenue, and Ben Warmer, Jr., Ontario, figured in an accident at 7:40 o'clock last night, when Warmer failed to see that Deverts had stopped his machine. The accident occurred on Third avenue just north of G street.

Mr. Deverts stopped about 10 feet from the curb to back and turn into a driveway, according to the report made to the police station. Warmer was driving behind about 100 feet when Deverts stopped. The Ontario youth failed to see the car and drove his machine into the left rear end of the Upland man's car. No one was injured.

Whiskers—Or No Whiskers!

If the pioneer pilgrimage in Upland on Sept. 9 is not being given proper publicity otherwise it is getting plenty through the whiskerino method. Strangers coming to our fair city are being greeted with many explanations as to why all the beards—and attemp'ts at whiskers of various kinds. It is the cause of embarrassment to many wives—but there are others who can note a marked improvement in the looks of their masculine companions since part of their face is hidden by "lace curtains."

The vigilantes have found it necessary to use the strongest microscope in order to ascertain if some of our most ambitious males are making any effort at raising whiskers. This News Guy has been accused of sprouting "guber feathers" on his upper lip. Yes—the same as defined by the "Two Black Crows" as fuzz off of peaches. "Hiz Orneryness" the mayor, who hied himself away to the mountain fastnesses in order to evade the inquisitive gaze of the masses, after being captured by the monkey tribe as one of their escaped members, finally made his get-away and returned to civilization as the least of two evils.

Owen Atwood—he with the dense growth as black as the darkest midnight—was tempted to use the razor again after his children had inquired of their mother the name of the stranger taking meals at their house since father left home.

Walter Horak has been congratulated upon wearing a false face that materially improves his looks—and thus it is anticipated his facial adornment will be a permanent fixture.

The facial disguises of Postmaster Kirk and "Jimmy" Goodban make them appear like twins—and both feel so highly insulted they would detach their "smoke screen" if it wasn't for that threatening "hoosegow" in front of Mac's thirst-quenching emporium.

Ted Combs is still using liquid fertilizer on his face, with massages at frequent intervals—and with the same results obtained by the bald-headed contingent. Ted is just simply too young.

And after viewing the crop grown by Clair Kirk, secretary of the chamber of commerce, we wouldn't blame him if he accepted a sentence in the "hoosegow" with the "whose cow" instead of parading around in public with the outcropping of his efforts.

And there are a number of others who might rightly be classified in this "Whose Zoo" of Upland.

We read that nearly three million automobiles were junked last year in the United States. Judging by the number of old wrecks we see running along the highways endangering the lives of people there were only a small percentage junked that should have gone the same route.

Notes of Society

B-Square Embroidery Club Has New Officers—

An election of officers featured the meeting Friday afternoon of the B-Square Embroidery club when the members gathersd at the home of Mrs. Lula Chapman for the regular monthly session. Mrs. F. Jebbins being co-hostess.

The new official family will include Mrs. Lula Chapman, president, Mrs. H. O. Henderson, vice-president, and Mrs. R. M. Hobbs.

Club Enjoys Wiener Bake on Santa Ana River—

Members of the Pedro club, newly organized card club, and their guest, held a wiener roast and picnic on the banks of the Santa Ana river Saturday evening, and it proved to be one instance where realization was even more enjoyable than anticipation.

As originally planned, the picnic was to be held at an early hour and the members of the party were to return to town, gathering as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tucker at their home for a session of perdo. However, they found the temperature at the river so delightful and so many pleasant things to do that there seemed to be no propitious time for leaving until a very late hour.

Upon arriving at the river, the men built a campfire and soon all were taking part in roasting the wieners which were added to the abundant picnic supper to complete a full menu.

After the supper various games were played for a time and later the men in the party enjoyed a swim in the river, finding the water quite warm.

The latter hours of the outing were spent about the campfire where there was much merry conversation and stories and jokes were told.

For the meeting next Saturday some especially pleasant affair is being planned.

Attending the picnic Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tucker and Mrs. Tucker's nephew, Harry Merryfield of Iowa, who is visiting here; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bergman, Miss Lena Mae Bergman, Lawrence Delk, Mrs. L. T. Cutler and Howard Cutler.

Phyllis Ann West Happily Celebrates Her Birthday—

Little Phyllis Ann West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. West of San Antonio Heights, was three years old Monday and the important occasion was duly celebrated.

As a delightful beginning for the happy day Phyllis Ann recevd her birthday gifts in the morning, a number of the interesting toys and other gifts coming from her two grandmothers here and in Long Beach.

In the early evening the birthday dinner was given in the form of a merry picnic in Ganesa park. In Phyllis Ann's estimation, no small part of the menu was the lovely birthday cake with its three yellow candles. There were several children in the party and they joined in playing merry games.

Attending the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Torrey and children, Ruth and Jean, of San Dimas; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gunn and children, Arthur and Elizabeth of Ontario, and Mr. Gunn's sister, Miss Annabell Gunn of Carlsbad, and Mr. and Mrs. West and Phyllis Ann, Ruth and Joan.

G. T. Club Members and Guests Enjoy Meeting—

Enjoying a quiet though happy afternoon, a group of friends who are members of the G. T. club, their husbands and several visitors were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wisely at their attractive mountain home at Bear canyon near Camp Baldy.

A contributed dish luncheon was served at the noon hour, the table being spread beneath a large oak tree and the hour spent about the open-air dining table was a merry one. During the afternoon the guests were content to find comfortable seats in and about the house and beneath the trees where they talked and quietly enjoyed the close contact with nature.

So abundant had been the provisions for luncheon that an ample supply was left and the group remained until evening and enjoyed a picnic supper.

The Wisely home is a very comfortable, attractive one and Mrs. Wisely has grown quite a flower garden, the blossoms used in decorating the house having come from her own yard.

Sharing in the hospitality extended by Mr. and Mrs. Wisely were Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Hamer and Mr. and Mrs. Hudson and their son, all of Pomona; Mrs. Isabelle Wisely and daughter Vesta, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kent, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Blohm, Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. O. Deverts, Dr. E. R. Son, Mrs. C. E. Allen and Marie and Jack Wisely.

The meeting opened with registration of delegates at noon and every hour from then until a late hour that night was crowded with important business and social features.

Campaign Nears End As 24 Seek 14 Posts

have been employed by the city council for their respective city positions and if they are defeated for the township posts, some changes will be necessary in the present arrangement. The constable's work is that largely of a police officer and the duties take the officer outside the city limits. Especially on civil matters, the constable also serves inside the city limits. Justice of the peace presides over cases when the violation is outside the city limits, but in the county township.

Some Unopposed

The unopposed incumbents for county offices are Harry L. Allison, county clerk; Vincent L. Roth, auditor; M. W. H. Williams, treasurer; John W. Batchelor, tax collector and ex-officio license collector and Howard L. Way, county surveyor.

George H. Johnson, incumbent, and Stanley W. Mussell, are making the race for district attorney, with a club here being formed in the interests of Mr. Johnson.

Efforts of Walter V. Combs, Ontario, to become county recorder, are being watched with interest. He contends that the West End should have more representation in the county courthouse and also sees a possible improvement through the adoption of the photostatic method of recording. He is opposed by Fulton G. Feraud, incumbent, and Harry T. Nott, both of Redlands.

Candidates for assessor are Albert E. Allen, incumbent, Redlands, and Edward P. Doyle, San Bernardino. Albert W. U'Ren, incumbent, Colton, and Thomas L. McFarlane, San Bernardino, are making a warm race for the position of public administrator and ex-officio coroner.

Judge Benjamin F. Warmer, Ontario, and Jesse Olney of Adelanto and Upland are the candidates for a place on the county superior court. Judge Warmer has served several terms.

No Race in Etiwanda

In Etiwanda the township offices are sought by the incumbents, who are unopposed, James D. Orendorff, constable, and Judge Thomas Donnelly, justice of the peace. In the Cucamonga and Alta Loma district, Judge James Sharp is the only candidate for justice of the peace, and W. H. Rupp is alone in his race for constable.

Sisters, Mother in Family Reunion Here

For the first time in more than 15 years, four sisters and their mother are together, here for a family reunion.

The home of Mrs. Vernon Paine, 520 First avenue, is the scene of the gathering today while a ranch house on a farm in LeRoy Kansas, was the scene of their last meeting.

The sisters visiting here are Mrs. J. O. Bowman, Ceres, Calif., Mrs. E. E. Musick, Pueblo, Colo., and Mrs. Howard Sutherland, Lawrence, Kansas, and the mother is Mrs. Laura Daugherty of Pasadena. Mr. Bowman and son John, and Mr. Sutherland, and daughter and son Dolores June and Howard Junior, are also here. Mr. Musick was unable to be present to complete the family circle.

Woodmen Make Best of Errors and Win Over Etiwanda, 7-4

The Modern Woodmen pulled one of the biggest upsets of the season on the local lot Friday night when they displayed an excellent brand of ball and captured a 7 to 4 victory from the highly rated Etiwanda squad.

The score indicates that the Woodmen had things fairly well their own way, but Etiwanda committed six costly errors which aided the Woodmen to put across several runs. Bice worked the full nine innings for the victors and pitched a good brand of ball. Cunningham and Evans connected for a pair of safe hits for the Woodmen while Brown batted out two bingles for the Etiwanda team.

Scoring two runs in the second frame, the Woodmen went into an early lead. Cunningham doubled and later scored on Evans' two-bagger, the latter also scoring on R. Frost's error. Etiwanda scored once in the same inning when Pearson crossed the plate on a single, a couple of wild pitches, and a sacrifice fly. Etiwanda tied the count by scoring another marker in the third, and went into the lead in the fourth, after each team had put across a single tally in the third, by scoring twice. However, the Woodmen came back strong in their half of the seventh to put across four runs and cinch the game.

An Unqualified Endorsement of Judge Benjamin F. Warmer
(INCUMBENT)
Candidate for
Judge of Superior Court

At the primary election to be held on August 26, 1930, Judge Benjamin F. Warmer and Mr. Jesse Olney are candidates for the office of Judge of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of San Bernardino.

Judge Benjamin F. Warmer is one of our present Superior Court Judges, and has served this County as such for the past eight years. For eleven years prior to that, Judge Warmer was actively engaged in the practice of law in San Bernardino County.

We, the undersigned, practicing attorneys of the County of San Bernardino, desire to publicly state that matters and business coming before Judge Warmer's Department of the Superior Court have been conducted in an eminently satisfactory manner. We are of the opinion that Judge Warmer has a very comprehensive knowledge of the law and a great ability to fearlessly and impartially administer justice and equity in our Courts. He has the faculty of giving the same painstaking care to the small case as well as to the large one, and a capacity for work and the dispatch of judicial business, and above all, is intensely human. Because of his character and judicial record, we believe the personal liberties and property rights of the people will receive full protection with Judge Warmer on the Superior Bench. This belief has been justified, and we unqualifiedly endorse the candidacy of Judge Benjamin F. Warmer, and commend him to the electors of San Bernardino County as a Judge well worthy of re-election.
